GRADE 1s PRESENT THE GINGERBREAD MAN
... at Vital Grandin School's annual Variety Night

St. Albert's fire emergency number 599-7777 is being misused--and in some cases even abused.

Fire Chief Fred Tetarenko said Monday that the telephone will ring--in eight homes--as many as three times a night with calls that have nothing to do with his department.

They may be after the RCMP, the city fire department, or just be seeking information. There are also a lot of wrong numbers and some pranksters. Of the Edmonton telephone directory, and people may be mistaking it for a city

The frequency of the calls has increased so much that Senior Captain Paul Poulin as of May began compiling a list.

"The increase seems to have coincided with the use of the 911 number by Edmonton," Chief Tetarenko said. Since then we've even started to get calls from the city."

The only explanation for this the local firemen can come up with is that St. Albert's number is listed under emergency on Page 1 number and using it instead of 911.

"People phone us to get the number of the RCMP," Chief Tetarenko said. "One fellow, after getting it, even phoned back to say he couldn't reach them."

Chief Tetarenko explained that when the emergency telephone rings, it rings in eight homes -- his, Capt. Poulin's, three other captains and three assistant captains.

He said the misuse of the number disturbed these firemen and their families.

"When that phone goes, these men are instantly hilly awake and ready to go," he said. "They expect an emergency. Even when they find there isn't one they don't go back to sleep easily."

Chief Tetarenko said the number was mostly abused in the afternoon, when sometimes children would phone.

"There'll be nothing but a bunch of giggling on the other end of the line," he said. "Parents could help us by teaching their children the importance of the emergency number and also that the telephone is not a plaything."

The calls the department has received from May 1 are:

May 1
3:30 a.m. -- Call from the city, smoke in an apartment;

7 a.m. -- Caller wanted RCMP;

9:40 a.m. -- Caller wanted RCMP;

May 2
First a legitimate call, a child with a finger stuck in a bicycle but then

4:45 p.m. -- Children playing with the phone;

4:50 p.m. -- Report of an accident in the city;

May 3
12:20 a.m. -- A report that a fire hose had been unwound in a city apartment building;

9:40 a.m. -- Caller wanted RCMP;

May 4
Three legitimate calls for grass fires.

May 5
12:55 a.m. -- Report of an accident on 80th Avenue south of the North Saskatchewan River.

Car rally set for Sunday

A pot pourri car rally sponsored by the Paul Kane Students Union will be held Sunday, May 11.

Open to everyone, registrations will be taken at 12 noon with the first car off at 1 p.m. Entry fee is $1 per car.

Frank Winters, one of the organizers, said the route will cover 50 miles within a six-mile radius of Paul Kane. He said it will take two hours and 15 minutes to travel it.

The rally was promoted by Frank and some other students who are members of the Edmonton Light Car Club. Any profit will go to the Students Union.

The scales of fate were in his favor

A Calahoo man's life literally hung in the balance for a few seconds Monday morning.

Felix Berube, 21, was driving north on Highway 2 through St. Albert when his car crashed into the west railing of the overpass at Sir Winston Churchill Avenue about 2:45 a.m.

The vehicle, wiped out 60 feet of railing, sending it crashing to the pavement below, before coming to rest balancing precariously on the lip of the overpass.

Berube, who suffered slight facial injuries, scrambled across the seat and out the left side of the car to safety.

RCMP officers investigating the accident were amazed that the car did not go over the edge. They said a few more pounds in front would have been enough to pull it over.

The 1966 Pontiac was demolished.

Mr. Berube was alone in the car at the time of the accident.

RCMP are still investigating.

Vital Grandin stages annual Variety Night

More than 250 people jammed into the auditorium in Vital Grandin School on Friday night for what the school can now consider to be an annual success -- its annual variety night.

The 10-act program was directed by drama teacher Miss Joy de Mello with the assistance of teachers Mrs. Judy London, Mrs. Jan Smith and Bob Chaput.

Proceeds will go toward the purchase of drama equipment.

Principal Lloyd Deutscher, in his welcoming address, said: "The place of drama in the school curriculum is seriously considered. Its primary value lies in the opportunity it provides for students to express themselves, albeit sometimes in a fanciful way.

"The incidental emphasis in a drama program such as enunciation, mannerism, attention to personal appearance, are instrumental in creating attitudes and value systems which hopefully will be worthwhile.

"The presentation this evening is simply an opportunity for our students to express themselves before a mature audience."

The program opened with a song and skit entitled The Gingerbread Man by Mrs. Smith's Grade 1 class.

Carmen Gibeau followed with a piano solo and then Grade 5B presented the play, Sleeping Beauty.

Other performers on the program, in order of appearance, were:

Cindy Loclar sang The Land of the Silver Birch;

Grade 6B presented the play Circus parade;

Patricia Lukay tap danced;

Jaclynne Brisson sang "Que Sera-Sera";

Grade 7A presented the play What's Cooking;

Sharon Willis, June Borle and Jocelyne Durocher formed a trio and sang;

Grade 5A presented the play Captain Castaway.

A big week at Mackenzie School

Former teachers and students of Sir Alexander Mackenzie School took a trip into the past Friday night at a program marking the close of a week-long celebration of its 10th anniversary.

Dr. Doug Petherbridge, vice-principal the year Mackenzie school opened, was flown in from Lethbridge to be guest speaker. Dr. Petherbridge is on the staff of the University of Lethbridge.

Robert Pawluk, a Grade 1 student that first year, replied to Dr. Petherbridge's address.

Holly Nickerson, also a Grade 1 student that first year, spoke on her memories of the past 10 years as a student.

Robert and Holly are now in Grade 11 at Paul Kane High School.

All grades in the school took part in a program depicting what took place over the past 10 years.

Grade 7 presented school days; Grades 1, 2 and 3 presented Teddy Bears Picnic; Grades 4, 5 and 6 produced a fashion show; and Grade 7 presented a skit on a typical day at Mackenzie.

Several items were presented to special guests Mrs. Judy Buchanan and Abraham Ruben, teacher and student respectively, from Samuel Hearne High School at Inuvik.

Mrs. Buchanan and Abraham, an Eskimo, are part of an exchange visit that saw teacher Doug Parkinson and 13-year-old Grade 7 student Kathy Olson travel to Inuvik for a week at Sir Alexander Mackenzie School there. Samuel Hearne High School is an off-shoot of Mackenzie school, coming into its own only recently.

Teacher Ted Rogers presented Mrs. Buchanan with an engraved Mackenzie spoon. Dr. J. W. Chalmers, superintendent of St. Albert Protestant Separate School District No. 6, presented her with copies of his books, Teachers of the Foothills Province and Schools of the Foothills Province, to take back to the Hearne teaching staff.

Donald McLaughlin presented a belt to Abraham on behalf of the students.

School Principal Rod Thronson recalled some of the past students, teachers and members of the board the year Mackenzie came into existence.

Mayor Ray Gibbon brought greetings from the town and Ron Harvey from the school board.

On Wednesday morning Premier Harry Strom had visited the school to help it mark Alberta Day.

The premier expressed his pleasure at attending the assembly and appeared especially pleased at the student response to his "good morning" greeting. Heather Morin of Grade 3 presented him with a boutonniere.

The premier commented briefly on the value of student exchanges made possible by modern travel facilities and extended an invitation to Mrs. Buchanan and Abraham to visit him in his office and also to witness a session of the legislature.

He presented an autographed copy of a book, Alberta: A Natural History, and a miniature flag to Abraham.

The premier took time to visit and sign autographs after the ceremony.

Other guests attending were Bill Pezrose, and Dr. W. D. Cuts, representing the school board; Dr. Chalmers; D. L. White, secretary-treasurer; W. P. Case, accountant; and Jack Black,

Credit Union annual convention

The second annual convention of the Credit Union Federation of Alberta held in the Chateau Lacsona recently recorded another successful year since the merger of the former Credit Union League and the Alberta Central Credit Union (1965) Ltd.

The 275 delegates and member visitors received an outline of Alberta's economic and social trends delivered by J. R. Oberholzer, director of human resources, Alberta provincial government, during the morning session of the first day. Then followed up this presentation with a workshop session under the direction of Ken Howard, secretary-manager of Western Co-op College. These sessions dealt with specific areas of operation of the movement.

Albert Lesburg, president and L. S. Alain, secretary-treasurer-manager, represented the St. Albert Savings and Credit Union at the meeting.

The second day of the convention dealt with the regular order of business. Highlights of this session was the decision of the delegates to broaden the concept of membership from what was normally a closed bond concept. Another important decision on the part of the delegates was the unanimous support for the proposed Cu-Chek program on a Western Canada basis.

The directors report outlined the fact that the movement had grown from $63 million to $104 million since the merger had taken place, and the assets of the Credit Union Federation itself had grown from $6.7 million to nearly $12 million during the same period.

Since all the directors but one are elected at the Chapter meetings, the only Director re-elected at the annual meeting was V. L. Galras, Pincher Creek.

The next day, the following executive officers were elected: President, G. A. Webster, Employees Savings and Credit Union (Swift Edmonton) Ltd.; first vice-president S. T. Reese, Edmonton Amalgamated Savings and Credit Union Ltd.; second vice-president S. R. Walpole, Tuxedo Savings and Credit Union Ltd. of Calgary; E. L. Allen, secretary-treasurer, Hydro Savings and Credit Union Ltd. of Calgary.

Organizers needed for bantam ball

Last year there were 12 baseball teams operating in St. Albert for boys in the nine to 12 age bracket. This year there are 18.

Last year at least 50 youngsters graduated from these teams. This year the number of graduates will top 75.

What's the next step for youngsters graduating from these leagues? Would you believe the St. Albert Oilers Senior Baseball Club?

Right now there's nothing between 18 Little Canadian Baseball League teams and the Oilers--no bantams, no juveniles, nothing.

One bantam team operated in St. Albert last year. It was coached by Chester Cunningham. When he started holding practices he had more than 30 youngsters out enough for two teams.

The interest seems to be even keener this summer because so many more youngsters got a taste of baseball in the Little Canadian League operated by St. Albert Lions Club and the Knights of Columbus last summer.

These two clubs have about all they can handle

100 miles for Oxfam

Twelve cycling enthusiasts rode instead of walked for Oxfam on Saturday, their goal Westlock and back, a 100-mile round trip.

Seven made it, including Peter McCaffery of the Northern Wheelers
Gary Stewart, 14, of St. Albert, rode to Morinville and back.

The group raised nearly $400.

The young wife of barely a year was asked how she found married life.

"There isn't much difference," she answered. "I used to wait up half the night for George to go. Now I wait up half the night for him to come home."

Oiler's coach eyeing successful season

When Chester Cunningham trotted his ample frame onto the infield at Mission Park diamond for the first time this spring, he was like a frisky colt taking to the fields after a winter in the barn.

He fielded, he hit, he ran, the sweat running in rippling streams down his face and back.

"Gad," he could have hollered, "but it's great to be young."

Coach Bob Mulloy just shook his head—in wonderment and delight.

"He fibbed about his age," Mulloy said later. "He said he was only 17."

Well, it's actually been a long time since Chester saw 17, about 18 years at last count, but you can be just as young as you feel.

And Chester this year apparently feels pretty young, so young, in fact, that his frolicking on the field exemplifies the type of spirit Mulloy figures will take Oilers to second place in their first year in the Oilfield Baseball League.

"We're looking for second place," Mulloy said Monday night. "I'm not going to say we'll take first but from what I've seen we can take second."

Oilers are in the Eastern division of the league, competing against teams from Devon, Warburg, Winterburn, Calmar and Edmonton.

"Devon pretty well walked away with the league last year," Mulloy said, "yet when we played them in a tournament they only beat us by one run."

"And at that point our boys were pretty tired as they had played four games, Devon had played only two."

Mulloy has pretty well sized up his strengths and weaknesses on the club this season. He sees the outfield as the strong point and claims depth at catching. He would like more pitching, righthanded and lefthanded, and a hitting shortstop to switch off with gloveman Homer Potlras.

His top pitching at the moment appears to be coming from returning righthanders Gordon Kutzner, 30, and Fred Resler, 22.

"Kutzner could be one of the best in this league," Mulloy said, "and Resler is also looking pretty good."

The main candidates for starting infield positions are returnee George Fraser, 26, at first base, Larry Mitchell at second, Cunningham at third and Potlras, 27, at shortstop.

Mulloy says Mitchell, 33, is having troubles at the plate but he feels this can be attributed to the switch from fastball to baseball. Mitchell has played first division fastball in the city for the past several years.

"He'll come around," the coach said. "It will just take a little time. He looks real good out there with the glove."

Cunningham will be tough to nudge off third base as he wields a big bat and despite his rotund build, is amazingly quick.

Mulloy sees power at the plate and fleet feet and good gloves in his outfield.

"Richie Perrault, 21, should lead the team in home runs," he says, indicating he will lock up one of the starting positions.

Hal Gerein, 20, Hank Reinbold, 23, and Lou Martineau, 23, are others taking solid shots at starting positions in the outfield.

Rick Pugliese, 21, who played with Mornville last year, Don Koenig, 22, who played for Calgary Giants last season, and Mike Mulloy 15, the coach's son, will handle the catching chores.

Mulloy has signed 26 players but will cut six by May 19. He intends to carry only 20.

"We need that many," he said, "because some of the boys have heavy work schedules and we'll be pretty active, playing nearly every Saturday and Sunday."

Meet the coach

When Bob Mulloy slipped into the coaching job with St. Albert Oilers mid-season in 1968, the baseball club wasn't long in taking on a new look.

The players began to hustle, but more than that, they began to think baseball. They pretty well had to, Mulloy force-fed them until it was coming out of their ears.

But it paid off—in wins and dollars. They gained confidence and by the end of the season were winning tournaments which provided the dollars to keep the team operating.

Mulloy, 46, says he got the job by accident.

"My son, Mike, was playing with Chester Cunningham's bantam team and happened to mention that I had done quite a bit of coaching. Chester was playing with the Oilers and they needed a coach so they approached me."

Mulloy, who moved his family to St. Albert on Feb. 17, 1968, from San Mateo, a suburb of San Francisco, claims his baseball credentials are "not fantastic."

He played only three years of professional ball, with Salem of the Western International League, but he has been connected, like most

BOB MULLOY

Americans are, with the game since he was old enough to swing a bat.

He played for Oregon State University and after his stint with Salem, played commercial ball for several years.

He eventually turned to coaching, taking little league first, at one time handling the all-star team in Portland.

He later moved up to Babe Ruth ball and coached California's all-star team.

Atom soccer league opens

The St. Albert Hercules Atom Soccer League swung into action Tuesday with four teams taking to the field.

A team coached by Eric Jackson defeated Jim Drysdale's squad 1-0. Terry Jackson scored the only goal.

In the second contest, a team coached by Del. Arsen and Brian O'Kell defeated Tony Holden's club 2-0.

A trophy for the coach

St. Albert Boys Boxing Club held its last training session of the 1968-69 season last week.

And when the boys quit swinging at each other, they threw a surprise punch at coach Brian Jelley.

It caught him right in the heart.

Jelley's young fighters presented him with a desk set mounted with a bronze boxer in appreciation of his work with them throughout the year.

The club, which has about 20 active members, had several titles in its hands at various times during the season but was without one at the end of it.

You can bet, however, that there will be several young locals in contention for some when the 1969-70 season rolls around in September.

Gary Larsen gets revenge

Gary Larsen got a full measure of revenge and a trophy to go with it Friday night.

Larsen, putting on probably his most aggressive display of the season, pounded out a unanimous decision over David Conroy of the South Side Legion in an 85-pound division bout.

The bout evened the fighters' records against each other at 1-1 for the season. Conroy had won by a unanimous decision in February.

Larsen, fighting out of the Breton Club, won a trophy as the fight came on the South Side Legion's annual trophy night, its end of the season card.

players on each ladder will constitute the team in inter-club competition.

Persons interested in joining the club may do so on Sunday at 2 p.m. at the court or by contacting Mrs. Betty Ontkane at 599-4644.

At the recently held registration night, 170 persons registered.

Of these 150 will be receiving coaching, necessitating the organization of eight clinics to be run for eight weeks each.

The juniors, intermediates and beginners have been categorized into age groups and instruction will take place at 4:30 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The senior clinics will be held Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Hercules midgets win

St. Albert Hercules Midget Soccer Club won its opening game of the season Tuesday night, defeating Garneau 6-2.

Doug Ferguson scored three goals for the winners; Ken Love got two and Brian Soule got the other.

The midgets went all the way to the provincial final last year before losing out to Calgary.

Clean-up week in Legal

The council of the village of Legal have declared the week of May 12th to the 17th as clean-up week.

As your fire chief I'm asking you to make this clean-up week a success by calling upon all citizens to rid their property or properties of trash and rubbish which may be a breeding place for fires. I will also advise you that most fires occur in storage areas, such as attics, closets and basements and that a simple clean-up could eliminate many fire hazards.

Spring always brings fire dangers, watch for all paint removers and cleaning solvents and never use flammable liquids indoors and get rid of old soaked rags and containers.

prohibits a person from storing flammable liquids in excess of 5 gallons within the limits of the village in containers other than containers contracted of metal and approved for flammable liquids.

We now have two fire trucks and 16 trained men in the village for your fire protection. If we can be of any service do not hesitate to call upon us.

Legal Fire Department.

Legal couple wed 65 years

Base ball group to meet

The Legal community are happy to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Georges Bugnet on their 65th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Bugnet nee Julia Ley was born June 24, 1882 in France. Mr. Bugnet was born at Chalon Burgundy France in February 1879.

They were married in 1904 and came to Canada in 1905 to settle at Winnipeg where their first son was born. They later moved to St. Boniface for three months where he apprenticed as a farmer. He worked hard and long hours from 4 a.m. to 11 p.m. for $15 a month. Then they decided to come further west and they spent one year at St. Albert.

The ambitious and courageous couple took up homesteading in a nameless district later called Rich Valley where they settled down and spent 50 years. They have now been Legal residents for the past 13 years.

In 1906 Mr. Bugnet began to import and develop new hardy trees, shrubs and flowers. In 1965 his experimental grounds became the property of the government of Alberta and given the title "The Bugnet Plantation Historical site". In 1967 he was made an honorary member of the Western Canadian Society for Horticulture. His name is also placed in school books among the best Canadian authors of french language. In English he has written articles published in books, reviews, magazines and newspapers.

One of his outstanding achievements in community service is a remarkable record of 33 consecutive years as a local school trustee and 12 years as a divisional trustee for Lac Ste Anne school division.

Of course behind a man's successful achievements there is always a warm, understanding, patient and valiant wife as was Mrs. Bugnet. At 86 Mrs. Bugnet still keeps house and cooks for her husband. When asked the recipe for a long and happy life she replied: "Hard work, patience and I've always listened to my husband." Mr. Bugnet also gives us his recipe for a long life and I quote: "I have never seen a doctor so therefore I was never sick. God wanted me to produce so many things that I had to live to finish them. It must be hereditary to live a long life he says because my mother died at 94 and my father at 89."

Mr. and Mrs. Bugnet headed a family of 10 children, 9 still living. They have 50 grandchildren and 35 great-grandchildren.

We the residents of Legal and district are proud to have you as our citizens and we wish you many more years amongst us.

The northern divisional board of the Alberta Baseball Association will hold a general meeting in Westlock on Wednesday, May 14. It will be held in the school auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Chairman Ted Tyrkalo of Edmonton said board representatives will be present to discuss all classes of ball - Little Canadian, pee wee, bantam, midget, junior, and senior.

All coaches, managers, and sponsors in the Westlock, Barrhead and Legal areas are invited to attend the meeting.

Everyone requires sound budgeting

Last Friday's session in Sir George Simpson Junior High School produced some positive results in that it set up definite guidelines for successful family budgeting.

The guest speaker - Mrs. Prymak, district home economist from Morinville - set up a framework adaptable to any family situation based on percentage of take-home pay to be allocated for each budget item.

She went into considerable detail to show that sensible budgeting need not mean denial to oneself of the finer things in life, but rather a carefully calculated plan for achieving long-sought goals such as a new home, a new car, boat or trailer.

One of the more interesting highlights of her talk was to explode the myth that only the lower income family is in need of budget counselling.

Mrs. Prymak said that the higher the family income, the greater the need for budget control.

Mrs. Prymak's talk tied in with one given the previous week by Lorne McKinstry, who elaborated on How, What and Why you buy on credit, and what you get for your credit dollar.

Many who attended that first session were amazed to learn that they were actually supporting an outsider on their incomes due to credit buying.

Church team scores win

The St. Albert Lutheran Church football team scored a victory in its first outing of the season Monday, downing Central Lutheran 16-10 in an exhibition contest at Paul Kane High School.

Both pitchers went the route, John Little getting the victory and Al Anderson taking the loss.

Both teams are in the city Lutheran Church League. St. Albert is in the nine-team northern division and will be playing at Paul Kane High School every Monday night.

This will be the team's third year in the league. It has not enjoyed too much success in the past but Eric Papp, who is assisting manager Arnold Knutson, has hopes for better things this time around.

We welcome the following to St. Albert:

Mr. and Mrs. K. Blatchford and family; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ryder and family; and Mr. and Mrs. A. Robbins of the Sturgeon Heights district.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Hebert and family of Mission Park; and Mr. and Mrs. R. Sparks and family of the Braeside district.

Report from the Legislature

By Tony Cox
Special to The Gazette

The government has withdrawn a proposal which would have allowed police to search property without a warrant if hallucinogenic drugs were suspected.

The amendment to the Public Health Act was dropped after protests from Opposition MLAs and the Alberta Federation of Labour. Despite the need for a warrant to search a person or property, police do not require a warrant to arrest a person believed possessing drugs or seizing the drug itself.

Last week was the week everybody was in a criticizing mood.

Both Premier Harry Stroom and Welfare Minister Ray Speaker took aim at the editorial staff of the Edmonton Journal.

Mr. Speaker claimed the Journal's editorial writers have seemingly embarked on a campaign of harassment to discredit the government. He suggested there was a growing credibility gap between the paper and its readers. He said it would be helpful if the Journal editorial writers checked details with their own news department before publishing editorials.

What brought the matter to a head was an editorial calling, "Human Resources, it's time for specifics". It was levelled against a white paper announced by Mr. Speaker dealing with a government pilot project aimed at moving persons from the welfare rolls to active employment.

The scheme urged more emphasis on preventive welfare and the rewarding of initiative.

Premier Stroom said the Journal, in many cases, made no editorial effort to present the government viewpoint. While not decrying criticism, the paper should demonstrate more responsibility, he said.

Another line of criticism came from Lou Hyndman (PC-Edmonton West). He called a government bill to investigate the cause of automobile accidents "premature".

The legislative investigations will delve into every aspect of an auto accident with evidence obtained being sworn to secrecy and being withheld from the courts.

Mr. Hyndman suggested, instead, using police reports and statements from witnesses.

Former cabinet minister A. J. Hooke also got in his licks. He questioned the use of "stay of proceedings" in Alberta litigation.

He passed on complaints that some people, possibly hundreds, are in the position of having criminal charges "hanging over their heads" for years without the opportunity of clearing their name. Mr. Hooke asked for disclosure of particulars of every stay involving an indictable offence since 1950.

It is unusual in Alberta to revive stays of proceedings. "The normal practice is to lay new charges", said Attorney General Edgar Gerhart.

And to top everything, Tony Boss Loughheed challenged the Secords to call an election on the issue of a cabinet minister testifying before a legislative committee on matters relating to government policy.

Gerhart started the ball rolling by charging the Tories with misleading the legislature and asked them to either back up claims of precedents being set in other provincial legislatures or the House of Commons, apologize or resign.

The Tories denied ever asking for either Gerhart or Agriculture Minister Henry Ruste to be sworn in before either the equalized assessment hearing or the Bighorn Dam ruckus. They countered by producing evidence of cabinet ministers testifying before government committees in the House of Commons.

House Speaker Arthur Dixon has promised a ruling before prorogation, assured to come this week.

Two new legislative committees have been established. Under Rev. Robert Simpson (SC-Calgary North) a seven-man all-party committee will examine and review all matters relating to invasion of privacy.

The other committee, headed by Roy Ellis (SC-Grouard) will delve into all aspects of automobile insurance. Both will report their findings to the next session of the legislature.

Kid's programs

"Rumplestiltskin" - a play by library pages will be shown at Calder Library on Saturday, May 10th at 10:30 to 11 a.m.

On Saturday, May 10th, at 10 a.m., in the children's theatre at Edmonton Public Library, Fun with Music on Film will feature: "Zoo Animals in Rhyme"; "Traditional Music of Japan"; "Story of HMS Shannon"; "Fiddle-de-dee".

EARLY MORNING ROBBERY
AT ST. ALBERT PHARMACY

An alert RCMP officer caught a group of eight Edmontonians in the act of stealing drugs from St. Albert Pharmacy Tuesday morning at 2 a.m.

Constable Bates, who was not on duty at the time, noticed something going on at the rear of the drug store as he was driving by. His suspicions aroused, he circled back to investigate and the group scattered. Some of them ran into a house four doors down from the store and the constable called in reinforcements.

Eight persons were arrested and three were charged.

Unclaimed bikes net town $197

The town realized $197 last week through the sale of 15 unclaimed bicycles and other articles by public auction.

Development officer Jim Roberts said the bicycles, some of which had been collecting dust in town storage for six months, sold for as low as $2 and as high as $31.

He said some bicycle parts and two wrist watches were also auctioned.

Bicycles are held for six months before they are sold, three months by the RCMP and then three months by the town.

Mr. Roberts said some bicycles are claimed after months in storage. One little girl, he said, lost her bicycle last fall but only claimed it this spring.

Many of the bicycle parts were frames, probably left abandoned after being stolen and stripped of all workable parts.

I hate to argue about who picks up the check - You pay it!
